We, the class of '67, dedicate this edition of Golden Kapers to our business instructor and coach, Mr. Philip Ackerman. His pleasant smile has brightened many days in and out of the classroom. He has served the community well as both a father and a teacher.

And so to a very nice person and personality, we dedicate this annual to you, Mr. Ackerman.

"MEDITATION 17"

No man is an Island, entire of itself;
every man is a piece of the Continent, a part of the main; if a Clod be washed away by the Sea, Europe is the less, as well as if a Promontory were, as well as if a Manor of thy friends of thine own were; anyman's death diminishes me,
because I am involved in Mankind;
And therefore never send to know for whom the bell tolls; It tolls for thee.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS: L. Lown, Treas., J. Lockridge, Vice Pres., K. Miller, Pres., V. Wyant, Sec., Absent

CLASS WILL

I, Ronald Banes, will my bale hook which I used last summer to Raymond Holsclaw. You can have my worn-out gloves, too, if you want them.

I, Bob Biwer, will my ability to "get along with Mrs. Hurst" to anyone who doesn't get along with her.

I, Randy Blaylock, will to Mike Costello the dirt road north of my place, but don't stop there after it has rained.

I, Kathy Bouslog, will my ability to study in first period study hall to Lloyd Warner. He needs it!

I, Sandy Streisand Brower, will to Lanny Strausser my wit; now you'll be a half wit. (I also will to Honore Hogendorn three small bricks.)

I, Russ Chapman, will my ability to smile to Mr. Shaw and the teachers.

I, Marlene Chittick, do hereby will my place in Sigourney to my sister, Ruth. One warning, Ruth, watch out!

I, Ruth Cobb, will my height in basketball to Cindy Septer.

I, Linda Coffman, will my notebook paper to Rick Allum. Now you won't have to borrow paper from your neighbors in study hall, Rick.

I, Dale Davisson, will my nickname "Tank" to my brother Gary who is outgrowing the name "Jeep."

I, Denny Denton, will my 1958 Chevrolet to anyone who can spare $5.00 a week for oil.

I, Bob Dillon, will my Chevy to Mike Caskey. Be careful though, Mike, because when you turn on the windshield wipers, the doors fly open and you've got a twin-engine blimp.

I, James Fry, would will the pillows in my car to Mr. Hugh Shaw, but I need them myself. I only have two, Mr. Shaw.

I, Leo Gent, will my enterprising nature to all those in our great society who need this basis of our capitalistic system, which is disappearing from the American way of life.

I, Dean Glanz, will my harmonica-playing ability to Jan Niman who would be a great one if she practiced a little bit with it.

I, Helen Harriman, do hereby will my cat, Tom, to Charles, effective May 31. He needs his rabies shots renewed, Charles.

I, Bev Hayes, will my ballet lessons taught by the great Russian instructor to Ben Vercande. Now you'll be forever light on your feet.

I, Linda Hedrick, will to Kristi Blaylock my share of Lockridge's telephone line. I hope you and Sherry get as much "homework" done as Jackie and I did.

I, Terry Hershberger, will my job at Middle America to Jim Hester who works at Landmark since competition is getting the best of him.

I, Jim Hester, will nothing to nobody; since I've been hooked, my wife's got everything.

I, Honore Hogendorn, will to Vicky Shaw all the fun I had in basketball these past four years, especially the talks we had this year.

I, Larry Homan, will one clutch-type motorcycle and used airplane tire to Leo. Keep on advertising, Leo.

I, Bill Jacobs, will my good behavior in the library to Tom Carter because he needs what good behavior I have.

I, Bob Jorgensen, will to Fred Smith my tent so he can spend longer nights in Williamsburg.
I, Jackie Lockridge, will all my ulcer pills to Betsy Smith and Sally Claypool. No editor should be without them.
I, Larry Lown, will my good standing with nearly all the teachers at English Valleys High School to Larry Lee. Heaven knows you need it and good luck.
I, Dan McDonald, will my ability to make good use of the library to my brother Dave.
I, Lois Miller, will the bumps on my head to John Snediger. You can have them back, John, since you gave them to me anyway!
I, Steve Miller / Ken Miller will my 49.9% / 50.1% of Amalgamated Miller to Gary Miller / Jan Miller
I, Peg Murphy, will to Linda Harris my hips in hopes that she put them to good use. On the basketball floor that is, Linda.
I, Pat O'Rourke, will my ability to get along with Bill Jacobs to Jan Niman.
I, Arthur Peck, will my 97% Golden Ruler to my brother Raymond. Watch it, Raymond, it makes one heck of a noise if dropped on the floor and thieves are very fond of it.
I, Jim Reed, will my red hair to Larry Lee for his blonde hair.
I, Kay Reed, will my art box and brushes to Marie Garringer. Good luck in art class and have fun.
I, Ron Ritchie, will my ability to get caught out after hours during track season to Mike Caskey.
I, Lynn Rowe, will to Fred Smith (Derf) some of his old man's money so he can afford to go to Williamsburg nightly.
I, Darrell Seaba, will my dark curly hair to Rick Allum. I know how he likes it.
I, Randy Sorden, will my nickname "Tarzan" to anyone who can climb trees.
I, Myron Stoner, will my poor dehydrated body to Mike Costello.
I, Ron Struble, will my ability to just barely pass college prep courses to Rudy Herrmann, because with a 4.00 average he'll need it.
I, Donna Swink, do hereby will my job at the theatre to my sister, Vicki, and to Jolene Saxton. With all the work I do, they need two people to replace me.
I, Carolyn Van Fleet, will my last quarter to Rudy Herrmann becasue from now on he'll have to buy his own valve oil.
I, Peg Wagamon, will my ability to run a taxi cab service to Vicky Shaw, Cindy Septer, Barb Harris, Marty O'Rourke, and Shari DuMont. "Run on down!"
I, Frances Worral, will to Debbie Shafer my room, my family, my position at home. Someone has to spend the money! And hey, Deb, watch out for "Big Brother", he a toughie!
I, Vickie Wyant, will to Mr. Ackerman by black feet. Make tracks, Mr. Ackerman.
I, Donna Thurman, will my dancing bear feet to Mr. Ackerman. Now he has three pair.
I, Cheryl Morse, will my locker to Mrs. Davine since she puts her purse in it anyway. Now you have one for your coat, too, Mrs. Devine.
I, Louis Hoylman, will my 5'10" to Mr. Yungschlager. Although it may not make you as tall as Mr. Cope.

We, the seniors of 1967, will the faculty our ambition. Every little bit helps.
We, the seniors of 1967, will the juniors our intelligence, grace, and beauty so that this school shall forever be blest with what they have lost this year.
We, the seniors of 1967, will the sophomores our humbleness in hopes that you can turn out more like your illustrious elders.
We, the seniors of 1967, will the freshmen our ability to play it cool. You need it.
We, the seniors of 1967, will to our parents the keys to the car and to the front door.
